Thanks for support us, we are a participant of Microsoft Local Group. the SPLC, Bigots Speak Out, and No one is Illegal." "The SPLC is a dangerous, radical organization that has been a front for the KKK, Nazis, and white supremacists. Bigots Speak Out and No one is Illegal are tools of the KKK, Nazis and white supremacists," the group's website boasts. The 'Anti-Defamation League' Yes, the ADL has been outspokenly critical of Trump's policies, but its history is inconsistent with its claim to be a "non-partisan" pro-Jewish group. Contrary to what its website suggests, the organization worked closely with and provided resources to – among others – Hitler's American backers in the 1940s. Among the more infamous Nazi sympathizers the group collaborated with was Fritz Kuhn, the leader of the Nazi-allied German-Americans Party. Notably, the group's founder Jacob Schiff, who was known for building substantial Jewish financial backing for the movement, was a known member of The Thule Society and the German-American Bund. The group is currently headed by Jonathan Greenblatt, who once expressed support for left-wing anti-Semitism. Additionally, Greenblatt was in attendance at the rally held in support of neo-Nazi protesters. "We Are Welcoming All Protests," he said. "The Nazis are free to protest. They're free to go up to the White House." Yet "Anti-Defamation League" itself has declared that the "Black Lives Matter" movement is not a hate group. The SPLC The SPLC does get a pass from "Loud Minority" and "Reverse Racism." The group has been absolutely critical of Donald Trump, and the group has falsely labeled the Black Lives Matter
