

There is something similar to the previous letter "R", but the font used is completely different, new. This time it is bolder and lightly italicized. The ... the letter "R" is similar, but the font is different. Very similar to the "A" but the font is different ... the letter "A." - Yes," I agreed, and got up from the table. -- Yes, that's exactly right. - But it's not really a letter," I said. -- It's just a combination of symbols. Sort of a code. - Yes," I said, and got up from the table. -- And they're not letters, they're numbers. Numbers, I think, that contain information. - Yes," I agreed. -- Quite right.
