[April-2022]

If you've got any problems with your UAC settings, then you must see how it could be easily fixed. It is not the only way to solve the problem, but it could be helpful in many cases. Firstly, you need to create the proper account on the computer that you intend to use with UAC. Let us say that you have two users, "John" and "Mary," that use their personal computer. You may get an error message that says that you do not have permission. In this case, you must enter "sudo chmod 0755 /usr/share/applications/desktop-file-utils.desktop."
