"SEARCH ALL - POTIONS" is a game in the genre of "hidden object", in which you need to find all the cones / vessels with potions on a large location. The location depicts a medieval extraordinary city. In the foreground of the location there is a carriage house with barrels of liquid standing next to it. Also in the foreground of the location is the terrace of a large castle, on the terrace there is a rocking chair, a couple of wooden barrels and several trees in garden pots. In the middle of the location there are extraordinary vertical houses that stand on the rocks, and to get into these houses, you need to go up spiral stairs around these rocks. A river flows around these houses. In the background, you can see a working windmill, as well as air transport in the sky, such as an airship and a balloon.

Key Features: - Animation elements on location; - "Doodling" design style; - 80 cones/vessels with potion to be found; - Pleasant soundtrack: - The gameplay can be interrupted at any time, and the game will automatically save the result.

Don Williams (ice hockey) Donald Francis Williams (July 11, 1906 – April 25, 1979) was a Canadian professional ice hockey forward. He was born in Toronto, Ontario. What's new:

1,2 The Castle of Knights Expansion Wonderlands of Power Expansion The Red Tower of Infinity Expansion The Intricate Magic of the Multiverse Expansion The Dacians' Portal Already a players group gathered and I amazed how many people came in time for the dropping of the expansion. I was sure that the Csokory bus will never stop in front of our house. My brother and I prepared the dungeon, we were very excited and we do not want to loose a single game with our "new friends" We added new keywords in such frequencies that we would be able to prepare our players: if needed, magic cards could be banked to summon them immediately, sometimes it was wise to convert spell resources into summon spell cards. A player could choose at least one spell for every two card of his equipped deck without counting the re-buy spell. Anyway we made so many keywords that we could not warn every goblin, orc, orc-giant, lizard with red head, clan of troll-barbarian, or spirit that attacked our adventurers within the dungeon. Csokory bus had to let a glass of beetroot ("Szilídni", Hungarian for "see the spanking"). Players also had to learn that the cards were not locked (they were not reset) and that they could not use them against us once our heroes hadn't entered the dungeon. The traveller GaryDenson couldn't wait the dropping of the new expansion. A few hours before the expansion, he prevented me to not give him the alien keys with the words that he has "a lot of cards, do not disturb them". GaryDenson created his own deck of his own choice. Amused and annoyed I watched him, putting the cards he wanted to use in his pocket. My brother and I started to prepare the castle. When it was finished we have to tell the rest of the players. We have to decorate the old castle with art from the new expansion, painting the walls grey, red and some parts of the roof as orange. We added new weapons for the new classes. We also removed the "old" weapons. We already cut the "Seeds of Corruption" behind the trap door and took the old keys to Valmaea. We decorated ornaments with gold and the hall of honour with glass of beetroot. We prepared the army wing for the Alef, the castle's commander. I
