The news today is fast-paced, and as a result, most people spend most of their time surfing for information online. Sharing news from social networks is a common way of obtaining fresh posts, but it often takes time and is not as dynamic as it could be. With Sismics, you will never need to again miss any news, with the application featured here. View News Feeds in a Web Browser Sismics is a simple and intuitive RSS news reader application that lets you access news feeds quickly and easily. Simply open up your web browser of choice and visit the Sismics website to register and authorize the application. This is only a way to keep the web browser alive, as the application communicates with the servers directly.

Access RSS Feeds on the Web Sismics is primarily a web browser application, so you don't need to install any software at all. After visiting the Sismics website, simply load up the web browser of your choice and enter your preferred feeds URL into the window field. Alternatively, you can simply use the integrated search bar at the top of the page. Browse Feeds Directly in the Web Browser Upon refreshing, you will be shown a list of feeds to which you can easily add new entries. The interface of Sismics is very easy to use and navigation is managed by horizontal and vertical scrolling, which is very intuitive. Stay Up-to-Date The most important feature of Sismics is the fact that it's updated on a daily basis, with the latest stories being displayed. To ensure the latest news are continuously delivered, you can bookmark the page or add it to your recent pages list. Mark Favorite Posts on Sismics Most feeds are powered by Google and Facebook, so in the event that you prefer a particular source, you can visit the link on the Sismics website and subscribe to them. You can even select to only view posts from that source. Add News Feeds to Your Sismics Favorites Sismics allows you to manage your favorites in a dedicated folder, with the most important items being marked as favorites. You can find this in the top right corner and the number of favorite posts displayed at the very top. Add News Feeds to Your Sismics Recent List The most recent posts are what you'll find listed after the first load, with this being a great way to keep track of what you need to read. The option is available directly under the header and there's an
