M Published by Gainax Review by KingofBeasts (c) 2011

Toraamaranacula!u!u!toratoratetoraimpanother “It’s like a human being!” “He can’t be!” I’ve been meaning to review the Tiger Fighter series from Gainax for a while now, the series seemed like a combination of Science Fiction, Fairy tale, and Ghibli to me. I wasn’t expecting the kind of monster a hybrid of a golden retriever, one eyed cat, and a three headed snake might be, as I remember images of people with tiger ears from the series, not just general tiger heads. But that was the nice surprise. When I first watch the series it took me some time to understand the significance of this series, and also I realized that the series is not a series but a single episode. If you want to know more about this series, read the official website (or the blogroll below. Tora! Tora! Tora! is like a documentary of the battle between Japan and China. The clash between Japan and China took place in 1931 with the outbreak of the Second Sino Japanese War. Japan invaded Manchuria. China fought back and destroyed even the tank which were shown on main character Toraamarus’ involvement in the battle. This single episode is a battle between Imperial Japanese and Chinese F4K (Fierce fighter 4-jet) aircraft. The 1st half of the movie is story of Toraamarus’ involvement and his story. Then a sub-story of the battles between Japan and China starts. We hear the sound of bombs and dragon’s breaths. We see the battle field. We can see the aircraft that appears on Toraamarus’ life as a fighter, the first appearance of the film. Toraamarus, pictured as a child, and Toraamarus suits The character Toraamarus is a multicolor golden retriever. Young Toraamarus searches for his master in the east. He is attacked by a three-headed snake and badly injured. He is rescued by Ichigo who fled from the Kinkishmaru, the Imperial Japanese Navy’s flagship. He lives with Ichigo
