Elden Ring Crack

"If you're a hardcore action RPG fan, I'm afraid you're not going to find much here that'll catch your fancy." Destructoid (8.0/10) "Yet another RPG where you can just call in a couple of hundred dollars and get a multilayered story with beautiful art and solid gameplay that doesn't entirely rely on grinding" Hardcore Gamer (A-) "You have to be a little bit nostalgic to buy a game that looks like it was made back when 3D looked awesome but, when you play this game, you're going to really be sad that it was one of the last games to be released with that style." PC Gamer (Best Action RPG) "For the most part, there's an odd lack of substance here that feels intentional. The first hour gets a little bit repetitive, even as the overall story is structured in a way that makes it very difficult to not like. It's a difficult feat to find an online RPG these days." Game Informer (7/10) "I'm going to suggest you go out and buy every fantasy RPG the other guys are making, just because I'm done analyzing how it was, so can you." Shacknews (9/10) "You'll need to spend a good deal of time with the game to understand how its structure works, but the conclusion is a happy one, as it's a game that gets a lot of things right." IGN (9.0/10) "If you're looking for a different experience than Dark Souls or Demon's Souls, Elden Ring is a great game to try out." Waypoint (4/5) "Elden Ring's limited campaign length and plentiful of rearing enemies ensure that both combat and exploration are dynamic, keeping the game feeling fresh even after dozens of hours." GameSpot (9.3/10) "Elden Ring isn't just a kick-ass online RPG. It's an honest-to-goodness stunning fantasy action-RPG. One that's sharp, sexy, and angry as hell."
