Ingredients include: kick ass girl group, old-fashioned marinades and pasteurized peanut butter. At their core they are the most outrageously delicious sandwich on earth. I'm happy to say that their universe is expanding, and that the CK+ team has discovered that the CK+ sandwich can be used to make other sandwiches. It can be an awesome sandwich foundation for all kinds of sandwiches. Every CK+ sandwich needs a backbone, and that's where the CK+ is such a fantastic candidate. Think of it like your friends homecooked tomato sandwiches, but improved to have the CK+ base in them. They are fantastic for all kinds of sandwiches, from chicken sandwiches to sandwiches with jerk chicken. And the best part is that they are pretty easy to make. Next time you're making a sandwich, try making one with the CK+ as a foundation. See what you like and what you don't like about it and start experimenting.The ultimate Detroit Lions fan destination has a new name! The Detroit Lions Foundation announced Thursday the official name of their new fan village. It's the Fox Theater. The nonprofit organization, which was established in 2006, is dedicated to transforming the Fox Theater, adjacent to U.S. Cellular Center in Downtown Detroit. The organization says the Fox is transforming the Detroit sports and entertainment landscape with game-day experiences that are unique, family-friendly and focused on the community. The opening of the Fox Theater is part of the group's mission, and it's named after the department store that opened at the corner of Woodward and Grand River in 1922. The Fox, which can hold more than 10,000 fans, plays host to an annual pop-up farmer's market, Silent Auction in Season, and the Red Wings on Ice. The group says the Fox also hosts concerts, holiday parties and other special events. The Detroit Lions
