I mean, are we all not parents? We are all very good at convincing ourselves and other that we have the answers. We say it is a parent's duty to protect their children from dangers, but who do we call to protect us? Our parents! Well, that was easy. While they may not have stuck with the path that we're on, they wanted us to succeed and for us to prosper. They wanted us to have the opportunity to take risks, to learn how to cope with trials and tribulations and to grow. And no matter how wild or difficult or how much we failed, they were there. We would call on them for help; we would
